Family Talk with Dave Phillips

We're looking forward to a great summer! JP Wamble was with us on Sunday, even though he doesn't begin as our new youth minister until early June. However, he introduced our summer interns - and both were with us even though they don't begin until their year at FHU ends. You'll hear more about each of them soon, but here are the pictures of folks that you'll want to get to know.

JP Wamble, our new youth minister, has already visited us. This is a recent picture of JP on a mission trip to Panama. He graduates in May from FHU, and after a long-planned family vacation, he will be joining us early June.

You will be impressed! He has a great report on the mission to Panama and he is excited about beginning with us soon!

J.W. Riggs will be our youth intern for the boys. He is from Memphis, a sophomore at FHU, and attends at the Great Oaks church of Christ with his family. He will be joined by Amanda Robinson, from Columbia, TN. She will be graduating from FHU in December. I believe this is an understatement: "We will all have a great summer serving God together!"

Ann and I will be out of town on Sunday. You will be privileged to hear Brian Stewart preach at the morning and evening services. Let's keep growing in spirit and truth!

Sunday Sermons:

AM - Have You Got Your Steps In Today? (Mt. 5:38-41)
PM - The Transfer Portal (John 4:13-15)

Visiting Among the Churches in North Mississippi

We appreciate so much the love and support the Germantown congregation has shown us over the years. We are thankful for the opportunity to tell you about our work during the month of March.

During the month of March, I preached at Indianola, Coffeeville, and two Sundays at Crockett. I am pleased to have the opportunity to help these congregations as they search for a new minister. I have been helping Coffeeville for over five years. These congregations are made up of wonderful Christians. They are unable to pay a preacher what they need to live. It is sad that we don't have ministers available to work.

March 17: I was invited to preach for the Yazoo City church of Christ. John Staten comes from the Jackson area to preach for them each Sunday. They have no elders and around 25 in attendance. Madolyn and I visited with the congregation. I gave a mission report about our work at the CSC and preached during the worship. The congregation has been a long time supporter of our ministry at the CSC. Ken Laney taught the Bible Class. It was good to see Ken. I haven't seen him since our days in Greenville. They were studying the Seven Churches of Asia and looked at the church in Smyrna. It was a very good lesson. It was good to visit with the brethren at the Yazoo City church.

Girls Bible Study

Update on the CSC: Our theme the spring semester is "Bible Questions that Young People Ask." We have considered, "What happens when you die?" "What happens at the Judgment?" and "Did Christ really accomplish what He intended to?" Please pray that we can answer these and other questions in a biblical manner.

Madolyn's girl class is going well. It is helping her develop some close relationships with the girls. Six of the girls attend on a regular basis. Madolyn has been meeting in the dorm and at the CSC. I appreciate her determination to help these girls grow in Christ.

We hosted the basketball teams from Northeast Mississippi Community College on February 29. The CSC at the Booneville church of Christ hosted our teams in November. We wanted to return the favor. We were happy to have both teams eat with us. Madolyn fixed her famous Lasagna for the meal. It was a fun night.

On February 29 at the basketball games, the college honored all the area preachers. Jason, Madolyn, and I enjoyed a BBQ dinner and received gifts of appreciation for helping our students at MDCC. We appreciate the school honoring us in this fashion.

Wednesday night March 6, Bradley Pettis from Byhalia, MS came and taught the class. We appreciate Bradley and Stacey coming all that way to teach. He is a teacher and associate minister at the Cornerstone church of Christ in Byhalia. We had 27 students to come.

We thank you for your love and support of our ministries. Please keep us in your prayers.

Blessings, Eddie and Madolyn Lewis
