Family Talk with Dave Phillips

Love God. Love Others

It has been a wonderful time of the year, and with the changing weather conditions, we are reminded that spring is on the way—but not just yet. It is a pleasure to meet new people that are visiting with us because of our varying spring breaks from schools, but it is also a good time for families to get away. We wish for them and pray for safety in their travels and return to home.

There are so many good works that take place within the congregation. Of course, it is impossible to record each event - for a variety of reasons. First, there are many good actions taking place of which only the brother or sister doing it and the Lord know about. That is enough, isn't it? Those being helped receive a blessing and the brother or sister serving receive a blessing. Secondly, we would not want to 'exploit' anyone who is in need by showing pictures of someone receiving help - in whatever form. It should be sufficient to say that we all need help at times, either physically, emotionally or spiritually. It is good that we have a church family that cares about the needs of others and offers help to the best of our ability.

Our Diaper Distribution work continued with the diaper distribution yesterday (Saturday). Our Diaper Ministry Team is made of people who organize the collection and distribution of diapers, as well as continue to seek Bible studies as the opportunity appears. Several volunteers help with this work who are not on the Distribution Team, but we are all prayerful for the families that are helped as we try to build a relationship with friends and neighbors as we seek the Lord together. We praise God for this good work!

Many of our young people are getting ready for Lads to Leaders. Our young men will be conducting services on Sunday evening, March 24. You'll see just a portion of those who are participating, but it will be a great evening!

Want to Walk the Steps of the Apostle Paul in Greece? Everything is now set. The trip will take place on Sept. 16-26, 2024. There are brochures in the hallway that have all the necessary information, but we will meet at 5 pm this afternoon in the fellowship hall to answer any questions. Call me if you have questions!

It is good to be at Germantown. We are glad you are here. Let's continue to serve God together in unity and peace.
