

Family Talk with Dave Phillips

Love God. Love Others

There is plenty of news around our congregation. Perhaps the brightest news for us is that JP Wamble has agreed to work with us as our new youth minister and is scheduled to begin his work with us in early June. We are eager for this tremendously talented young man to join us as we serve God together. As Brian very capably said on Sunday, we are so grateful for our young people and the parents of our teens who have been working together during this interim to meet the needs of our teens, both in their classes, scheduled activities, and needs along the way.

We are very blessed with a great congregation - and as the distribution of ages will always vary, the collective goal for each of us is to glorify God in everything we do - no matter what our age. Joe Skelley focuses his work primarily on the senior members of our church family, while Mary Katherine and Adam Stewart are working with our children in Grace Land. Brian works with 'engagement,' which is trying to encourage every member to find a place to 'plug in' as we work together. Glenn works with spiritual leadership in a variety of areas, including working with the Challenge (offered for all ages at various times of the year) as well as working continually with teaching in the prisons.

Each of these dedicated followers of Christ are committed to do their very best work for the Germantown church family.

In addition, each of these areas is bolstered by a cadre of people who work behind the scenes making sure we have teachers, lessons to teach, song leaders for our children's classes and special activities.

If you haven't found your place in this church family yet, please let one of these people know - or call me - and we will try to help. Let's work together for God's glory!

We have come to know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and the one who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.
