

Good morning! Welcome to our worship service. We are thrilled to be here for the purpose of glorifying God. This morning, Lucas Suddreth, our young adult minister, will be preaching at both of our morning services. We are blessed with outstanding ministers at Germantown – and we love the Suddreth family, praying for God’s richest blessings on Lucas, Rachel and Sheppard. Be sure to encourage him in his work and ministry.

Our area-wide worship service is next Sunday! We begin at 5 pm – instead of our normal 6 pm. Come early and find someone to encourage - then invite them to come sit with you. James Thompson and Frank Bolling will be speaking. Tyler Mayo and Kevin Bingham will lead singing. Since we will conclude by 6:15, we will have plenty of time for fellowship. See you there!

There is also a great date you should put on your calendar. The annual dinner for the Tennessee Children’s Home will be held in our fellowship hall on Thursday, March 5. This is an informational dinner about the great work going on at the Children’s Home. We have been actively involved for many years – but we want to show up and support this good effort.

There is a wonderful date you should put on your calendar. The Memphis VA Medical Center will be celebrating a special tribute to Vietnam Veterans on National Vietnam War Veterans Day, on March 27. The program will be held at the Memphis VA Theater from 9 am – 11 am. The featured speaker will be our own John Ivy. Please mark that date and plan to attend.

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

Joshua Adams, Youth Minister

The GYG Spring Retreat is coming up on March 22nd-24th. All teens 7th-12th grades are invited! The cost for the event will be $35 which covers the cost of lodging, food and t-shirt. This year we are going to Camp Hopewell again in Oxford, MS. The theme is We>Me and we'll be talking about the importance of working together and looking toward each others' needs instead of our own. This year we'll be participating in a high ropes course where we'll be putting that teamwork into action. Forms will need to be signed before we head that way and for those of you with an aversion to heights, don't worry, you don't have to participate if you don't want to. There's plenty of fun and games as well as biblical lessons being prepared right now for this awesome annual event. Be sure to sign up online or in class today!
