Family Talk with Dave Phillips

Fully Committed to Jesus Our Savior!

Good morning! So... the wintry weather is having its way with us once again, isn't it? I love it! The change is good for us and reminds us that we are not in control of many aspects of our lives, so we must adjust. I like the phrase we use when making visits to mission points. You must be 'fluid' because 'flexible' is not flexible enough. Perhaps the best word for the Christian is that we are 'amenable' to the will of God. "If the Lord wills..." has become my state of mind—even if not openly stated.

Our Elder's Breakfast was tremendous! We thank our shepherds and their wives for their hospitality in serving the food. We had a good session of discussion over what is planned for the new year ("If the Lord wills..."). We begin this month with a focus on the church. The Committed Booklets will be available either in the foyer after the service is over—or at the office during the week. This is an aid for at-home study and reflection for the year. We will distribute these each month. The Worship Bulletins are available each week with the order of worship and the sermon outline on the back for your use during our worship service.

Our goal is to be more like Jesus. Our shepherds have adopted the phrase, "Because we are fully committed to Jesus our Savior, we are committed to..." and each successive month of the year emphasizes areas in which we are motivated to serve. The month of February is entitled, "Because we are fully committed to Jesus our Savior, we are committed to the body of Christ." Our focus will be on the church.

To that end, our guest speaker for Sunday, February 20, Jesse Robertson, from Harding University, will be speaking on our commitment to the "Head of the Body," the "Health of the Body" and the "Heart of the Body." (The details are given inside this bulletin). I'm already eager for his lessons! Let's stay safe, stay faithful—and we'll see you this Sunday! May God bless us all!
