Family Talk with Dave Phillips

VBS! Many Thanks...Many Blessings!

Good morning! If there is a large group of adults, teens and children who seem a little weary this morning, they might be excused. We had a great week of VBS and they were an integral part of it. There were so many that came and participated. Praise God and thank you! There were many who changed their plans, trips and vacations in order to be here. Praise God and thank you! There were many who went beyond the call of their particular assignment and helped wherever they could. Praise God and thank you! We had excellent teaching, singing and encouraging. Praise God and thank you! Was it a success? We accomplished God-honoring activities where adults and children learned about God and his will for our lives. Yes, it was a success. I could list so many names, but honestly, there were just too many. My response has to remain, "Praise God and thank you!"

Our summer is certainly filled with events, but I trust that our allegiance to God never fails. We have as our emphasis this year, "Fully Committed!" We are learning about commitment this month by looking at our dedication to edification. This is a word that may not be in our 'working vernacular.' That doesn't mean we don't know what it means but we may not say it frequently. This month, we will.

Yes, it is back on the calendar!! Lord willing, Andrew and I are hosting a group to visit the Holy Lands in March of 2023. The dates are March 14-24, 2023. The flights have been reserved. The hotels have been reserved. The transportation and tour guides (you must have tour guides in Israel or you go nowhere) have been scheduled. Would you like to join us? Our last trip had 41 people joining us, 20 of them from Germantown. We will have an informational meeting on July 10, at 5 pm in the fellowship hall. We will have the itinerary, the hotel contact information, the cost, the deadlines, and answer any questions you might have. I'm already eager to go! I can't wait to "Walk Where Jesus Walked" - again! Mark the dates on your calendar and join us for our informational meeting.

Sermons and Scripture Reading
