Family Talk with Dave Phillips

This Lord's Day presents a wonderful opportunity for an increase in Biblical knowledge as well as a sense of inspiration from a unique source. We will have all of our Bible classes, from teens through adults meeting in the auditorium during the Bible class hour (9:15 am). We do plan to live-stream the Bible Class as well. It usually goes well, but in the event of technical problems, we will have it recorded so that it can be posted on our website as soon as possible.

Dale Manor is from Harding University in Searcy. He has retired as a professor, but he is still very engaged not only in the field of archaeology, but also very involved in teaching and preaching. He will be our speaker at each of our services. He was with us last year in a lesson on what Abraham saw in his time. We were all inspired as he took us back in time to appreciate more fully what God has done for His people and the long-term plans He has for us. I hope you take advantage of every opportunity to be a part of our assemblies.

I made an announcement on Wednesday night about a meeting this afternoon with all of the men in the congregation. In an attempt to explain part of the reason the elders want to meet with the men, I said it was to make plans for our 'emergence from the pandemic.' Someone asked, "What about the women?" Let me just say that subsequent meetings will follow with all the congregation, but our shepherds want to start by meeting with the men. Rest assured that as we continue to grow together in our work, there will be plenty of meetings. I will be just like all the other men at the meeting - coming together to see how we can all work together more effectively. There is enough for all of us to do at Germantown. Now is the time for us to pray, dream, plan and pray. Thank you for doing just that! Let's continue to grow in peace, harmony and number.

Don't forget that "Shared Blessings" is quickly approaching. We will resume our distribution to the churches at Midtown and Raleigh Springs on November 20.

Thank you

Dear Brethren,

Thank you for the thoughts, prayers, and cards sent my way during this time of struggles. My love to all of you always.

Sherrel Wayne Lawhorn

To my wonderful church friends,

Thank you for all the cards, calls, and especially the prayers. I have listened to all the services at home, but it's not like being there with you all. The jury is still out on the second nerve block but I'm getting better from my fall. Again, thank you all for your kindness and hope to be back soon.

In Christian love,
Phyllis Vincent
